THE ANNUAL GATHERING OF GRANTMAKERS  118 FUNDERS FOR LGBTQ ISSUES COMMITTED TO LGBTQ ISSUES WELCOME new orleans 📌 march 14-16

2018 LGBTQ ISSUES FUNDING FORVARD

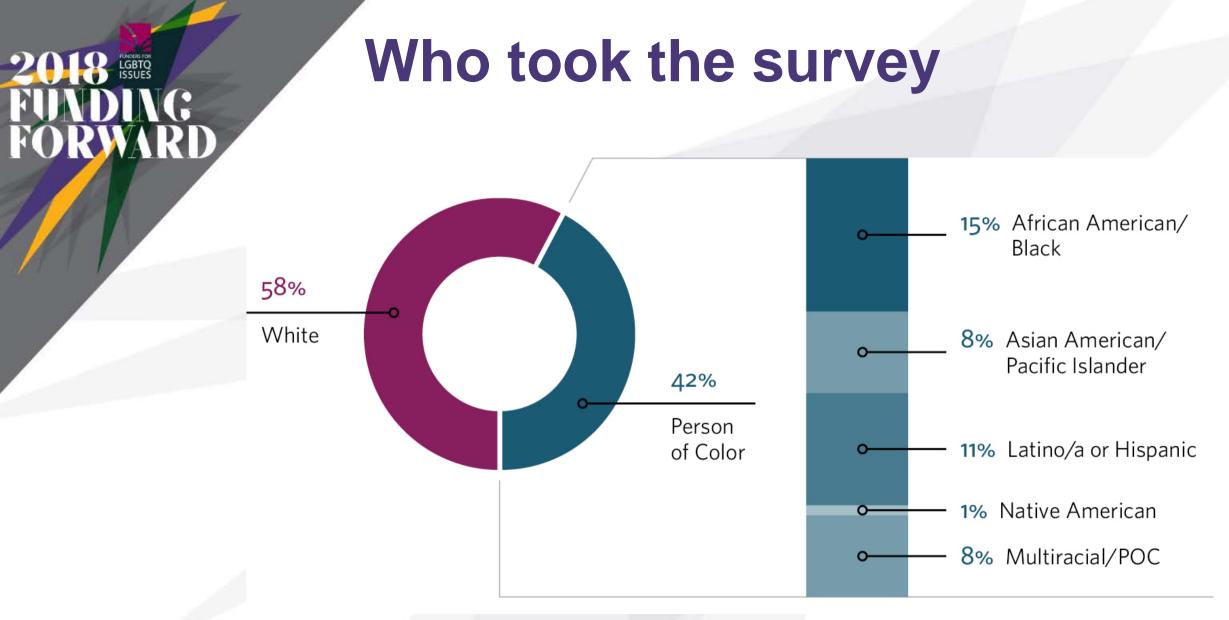

Funders Confronting the Nonprofit Racial Leadership Gap

2018 LGBTO FUNDING FORVARD

Workshop Agenda Welcome Review of Survey Fishbowl Discussion Q&AWrap-Up

2018 LGBTO ISUES FUNDING FORWARD

Race To Lead Findings from a survey of nonprofit staff

2018 LGBTO ISSUES FUNDING FORVARD

20% of the respondents self-identified as LGBTQ

2018 LGBTO SSUES FUNDING FORWARD

What we wanted to know

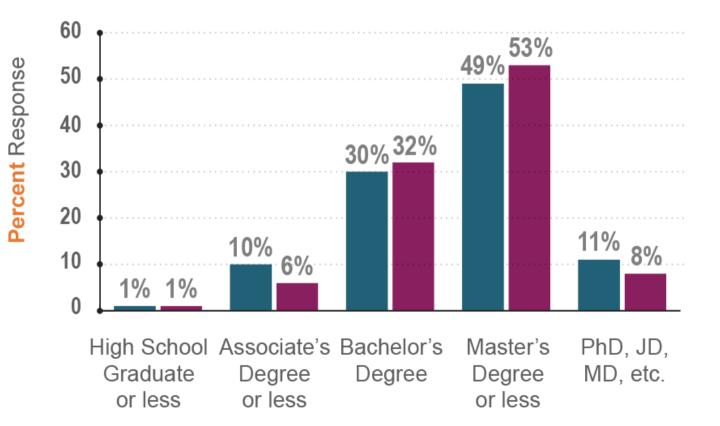

Why – despite an increased number of training programs for developing leaders of color and the number of groups working on issues of race/race equity – are there not more leaders of color in nonprofits?

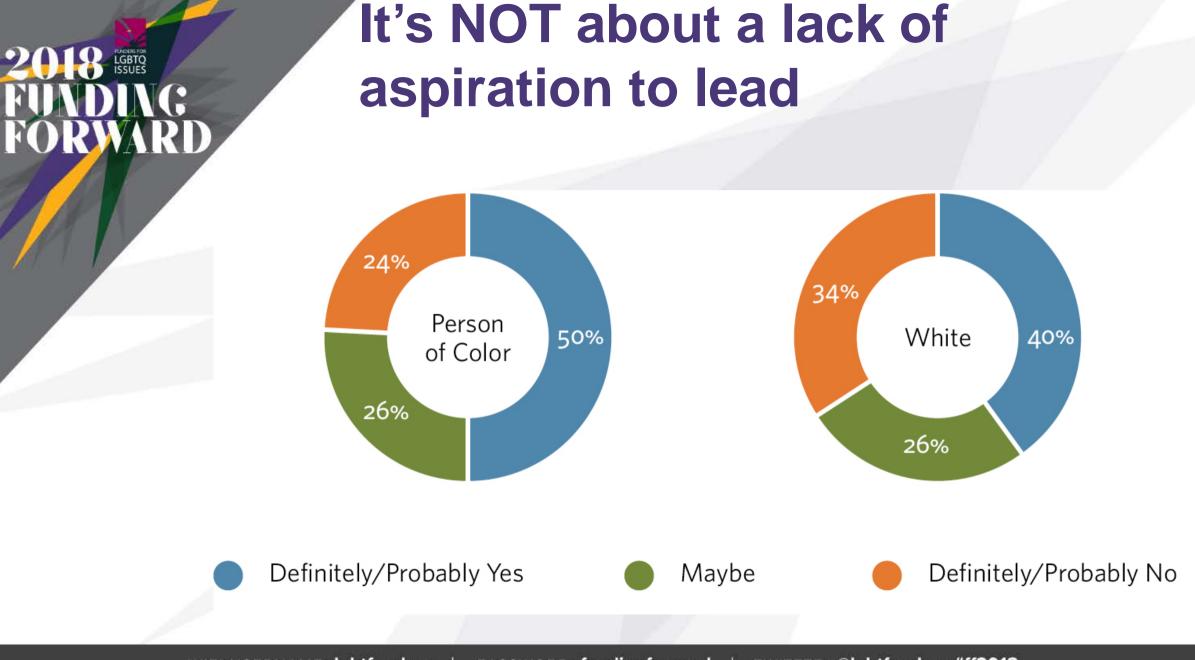

LGBTQ

It's NOT about differences in qualifications

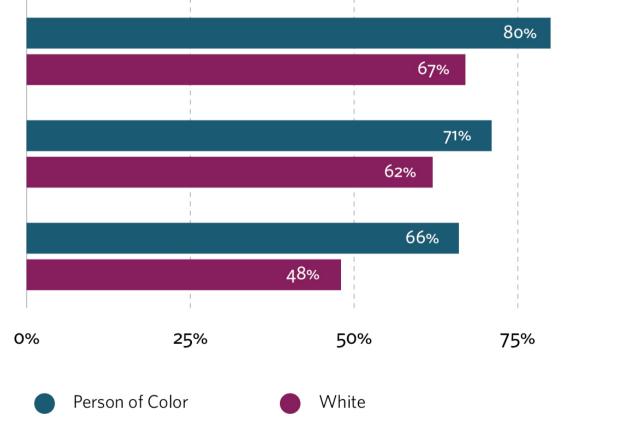

2018 LGBTO FUNDING FORWARD

It's NOT personal It IS the system

Executive recruiters don't do enough to find a diverse pool of qualified candidates for top-level nonprofit positions

> Predominantly white boards often don't support the leadership potential of staff of color

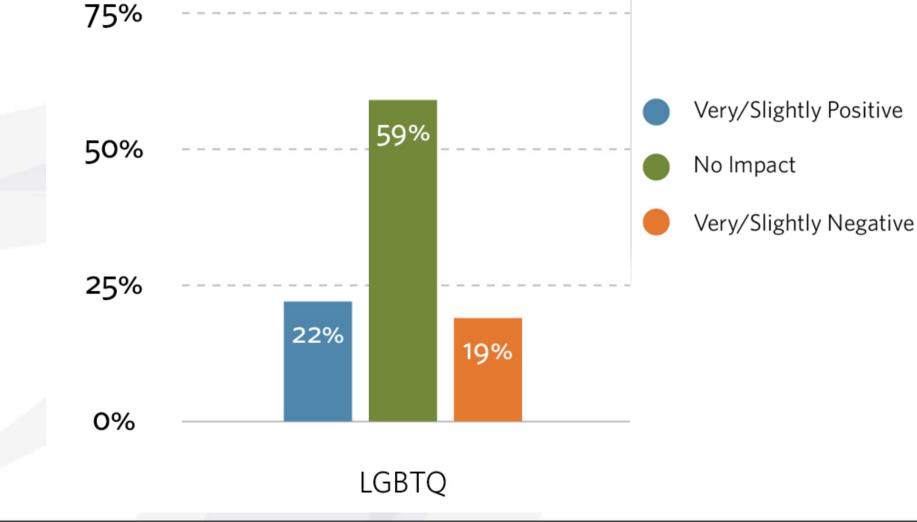

> Organizations often rule out candidates of color based on the perceived "fit" of the organization

100%

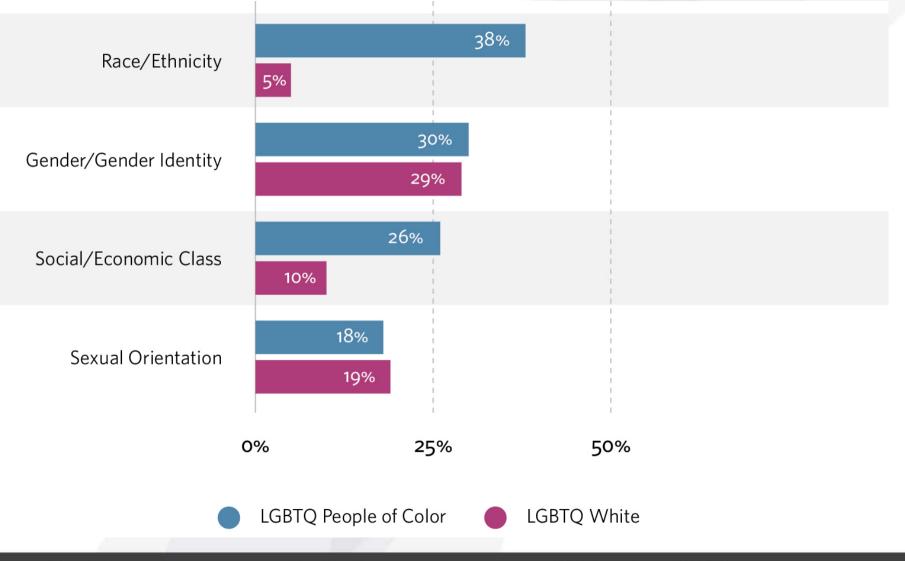

2018 LEBTO FUNDING FORWARD

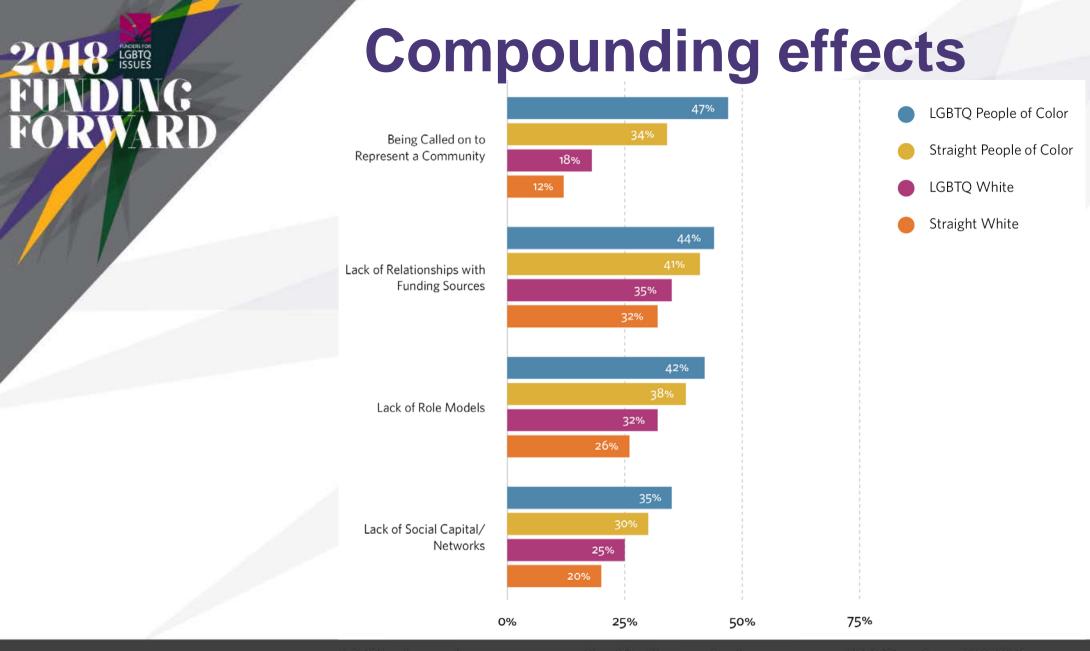

Impacts of sexuality on career advancement

2018 LGBTO FUNDING FORWARD

But race has bigger impacts

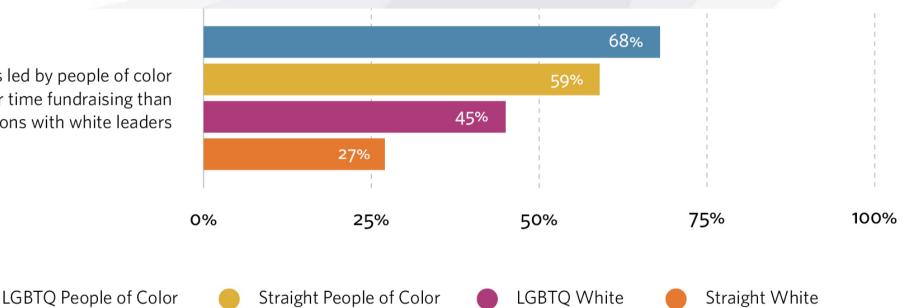

LGBTQ ISSUES FORMARI

Racial barriers to fundraising

Organizations led by people of color have a harder time fundraising than similar organizations with white leaders

2018 LGBTO ISSUES FUNDING FORVARD

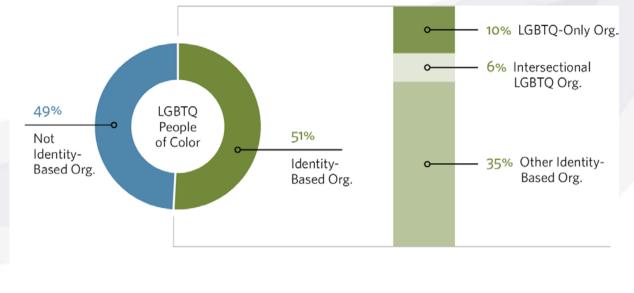

Finding opportunity in identity

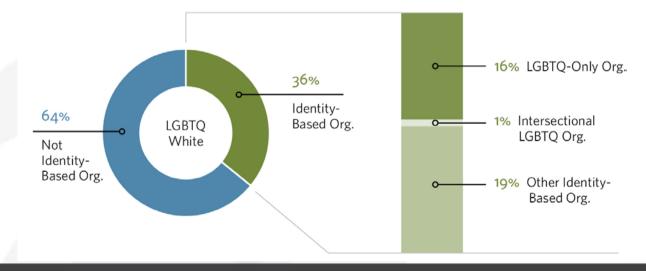

I found a way for myself as an out lesbian by working for organizations with socially charged missions. It has been a bit easier to thrive in those organizations because they have worked to be inclusive of Lesbian Gay and Bisexual folks.

– Black Lesbian

2018 LGBTO ISSUES FUNDING FORVARD

Choosing identity-based orgs

2018 LGBTO SSUES FUNDING FORVARD

Fishbowl Discussion Rebecca Fox, Wellspring Philanthropic Fund Rickke Mananzala, Borealis Philanthropy Shaena Johnson, Astraea Foundation

Thank You!